Your Beatitude,

RE: MESSAGE OF SOLIDARITY

The Executive Committee of the All Africa Conference of Churches which represents a membership of 174 churches and Christian Councils in Africa, meeting in Nairobi on 13th October 2011 has prayed for Egypt and deliberated on the situation in your country.

We are saddened by the events that led to the loss of lives in Aswan. This event was followed by demonstrations in which many Christians were killed. This has happened after several crises which took place few months ago.

In view of the recent events in Egypt, peaceful coexistence of all faiths is imperative for the people of Egypt to achieve social, economic and political development. We therefore appeal to all the people of Egypt to uphold the peace and freedom of worship.

The AACC constituency continues to pray for peaceful coexistence, particularly in this period leading to elections next year.
