Beloved Members of the AACC General Committee
Leaders of the AACC Member Churches
Ecumenical Partners and Members of the Staff team

I want to greet you in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We have been journeying together, serving the Kingdom of God through the Ministry and mandate of the AACC. I want to thank each one of you for the dedication and healthy engagement you have shown during this year 2010 and before.

As we are approaching to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ and the renewal of the Living Spirit of God, which will form your journey as you will be entering into the New Year 2011.

We want to ask you to constantly and fervently keep in your prayers the people of Sudan so that they can go through the critical moment of referendum with peace and security for everyone.

We also want to ask you to remember the country and the people of Cote d'Ivoire who are as well hungry for peace and security for the future.

Let me wish you all once again a Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year 2011.

Yours in His Service,
