

O Mighty God, So Strong to Save

Scott Barton, 2011
vs. 1, William Whiting, alt.

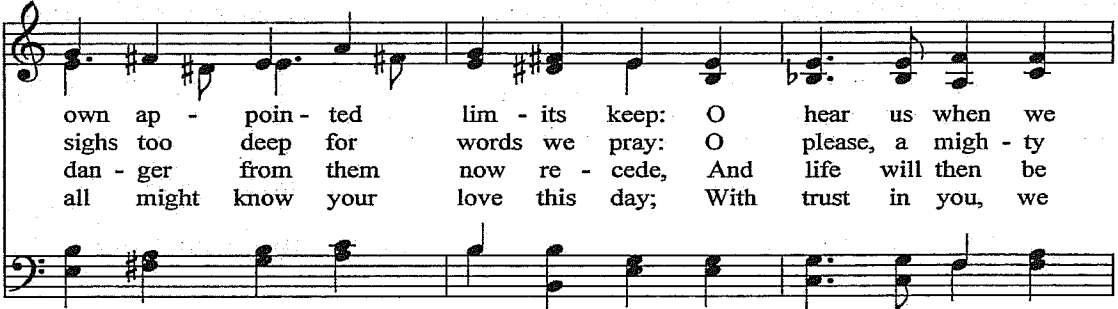

John Bacchus Dykes, 1861

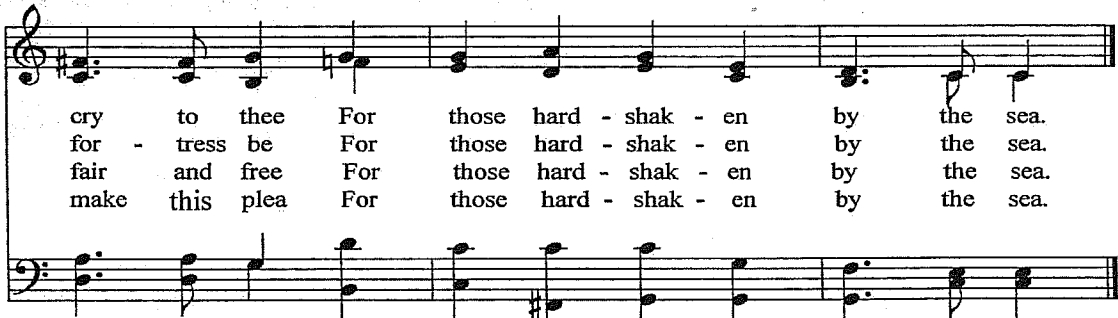

1. O Migh - ty God, so strong to save, Whose arm has bound the
2. Our breath is stopped, our spi - rits fail At sights and sounds of
3. Cre - a - tor of all en - er - gy, Who, with a word once
4. Now we, your peo - ple in this place Are streng - thened by your rest - less wave, Who bade the migh - ty o - cean deep its such tra - vail; We hard - ly know what we can say, With calmed the sea; A bul - wark be to those in need. May news of grace, So with your help, we'll live and pray That own ap - poin - ted lim - its keep: O hear us when we sighs too deep for words we pray: O please, a migh - ty dan - ger from them now re - cede, And life will then be all might know your love this day; With trust in you, we cry to thee For those hard - shak - en by the sea. for - tress be For those hard - shak - en by the sea.

fair and free For those hard - shak - en by the sea.
make this plea For those hard - shak - en by the sea.